Follow-up to the Second International Conference on Nutrition

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 66/2 of 19 September 2011, 66/221 of 22 December 2011, 68/233 of 20 December 2013, 68/300 of 10 July 2014, 68/309 of 10 September 2014 and 69/240 of 19 December 2014,

Noting the adoption of the Rome Declaration on Nutrition,[1] as well as the Framework for Action,[2] which provides a set of voluntary policy options and strategies for use by Governments, as appropriate, adopted at the Second International Conference on Nutrition, held in Rome, from 19 to 21 November 2014,

Recognizing with concern the need to eradicate hunger and prevent all forms of malnutrition worldwide, in particular undernourishment, stunting, wasting, underweight and overweight in children under 5 years of age and anaemia in women and children, as well as other conditions related to micronutrient deficiencies, and to reverse the rising trends in overweight and obesity and reduce the burden of diet-related non-communicable diseases in all age groups,

Taking note with appreciation of the role of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the World Health Organization, the World Food Programme, the United Nations Children's Fund and the International Fund for Agricultural Development, in collaboration with other relevant agencies, funds and programmes of the United Nations system and other international organizations, in supporting national Governments, upon request, in developing, strengthening and
